

PRESENTS

Exploring
CHAPLAINCY

5 WEEK ZOOM SERIES THIS MAY

Join us every Wednesday in May (beginning May 3rd) and learn about chaplains that work to bring spiritual care to many diverse and challenging contexts.

LEARN MORE AND RSVP AT - THECFLC.ORG

MAY 3rd

Military Chaplaincy

Colonel Joanne Martindale,

Veterans Administration chaplain and CPE Supervisor at David Grant Medical Center, Travis Air Force Base

Chaplain Martindale, a 33-year veteran of the Army National Guard and Army Reserve, served as lead trauma counselor for Rwandan and Bosnian victims of atrocities in 1996. She was a first responder on 9-11 and served at Fresh Kills landfill for months afterwards. She also served as Division Support Command Chaplain for the 42nd Infantry Division in Iraq in 2005. She was also mobilized for 3 ½ years as Deployment Support Chaplain for the Schweinfurt and Bamberg Military Communities in Germany.

MAY 10th

Corporate Chaplaincy

Chaplain Alex Donovan,

BCCC

A lay Certified Chaplain, is pioneering a new form of chaplain presence at Optum Healthcare focused entirely on healthcare staff support, supporting the wellness and resilience of nurse practitioners, PAs, RNs, and healthcare leaders in the country.

<https://www.amdonovan.com/>

The chaplaincy program at DFW airport is the largest airport chaplaincy program in the world. The interfaith Chaplains at DFW provide spiritual care and support to those who work at and travel in the DFW airport.

<https://dfwairportchapel.org/services>

MAY 17th

Airport Chaplaincy

Bishop DD Hayes,
Senior Chaplain

The Rev. Greg McBayer,
Chaplain and Chairman of the Board

Mushin Shasheed,
Associate Chaplain

MAY 24th

Port Chaplaincy

Deacon Joey De Leon,
Interim Executive Director

Julia Cooper,
Interim Director

Deacon Joey is the heart of the Seattle Seafarers Center. Hailing from Manila in The Philippines, he is a Catholic Deacon with the Archdiocese of Seattle, and has been serving as our Senior Port Chaplain for over 5 years. Deacon Joey has a heart for serving the seafarer community and mentoring our staff and volunteers.

While completing a service year at SSC in 2021-2022 through the Episcopal Service Corps, Julia developed a passion for visiting ships, connecting with seafarers from all over the world, and raising the visibility of seafarers in the community. She is excited to continue working with the tight-knit team of staff and volunteers at SSC in welcoming and serving seafarers in Puget Sound.

MAY 31st

CFLC | PRISM

Lay Chaplains & Facilitators

Come hear about work the Center for Lay Chaplaincy is doing to innovate chaplaincy training and to make the vocation of chaplaincy available to everyone. PRISM Restorative Justice will talk about their ministry in LA County jails and the vital role lay chaplains play in providing spiritual care in incarcerated communities.